Beginner Course

A specially designed course for beginners who have no knowledge of Arabic language, the syllabus has been prepared in such a way that any person interested to learn Arabic can join the course without a second thought. The duration of the course is two months. The Academy's aim is to enable every student to speak Arabic in the most sophisticated way like Arabs without having to learn to read and write Arabic letters or take grammar lessons. The academy assures that you will be knowledgeable and confident enough to interact and speak with an Arab upon successful completion of this course.

Module 01: The Arabian Greeting

The greetings of every country have to be learned from its people itself. Mere reading of literary texts alone is of no use for greeting in Arabic. Arabic UNI's beginner course offers a simple study of the daily greetings of the Arabs with regards to their noble culture.

Module 02: Communication in Short Words

Making simple Arabic sentences by a combination of simple words and meaningful letters is taught

Module 03: Practice Different Speech Patterns

Some forms of speech that are not found in print language but are inevitable in spoken language are introduced.

Module 04: Short Study and Training of Verbs

The value of verbs in Arabic is higher than that in any other language. This is because various concepts in Arabic originate from different forms of verbs. A simple training on verbs is provided.

Module 05: Suffix

Suffixes are essential for a deviation in the meaning of verbs. Changes in the meaning when they are used alone and together are taught.

Module 06: Bangla-Arabic Discussions

Among the people working in gulf countries, the beauty of pure Arabic language has diminished and a new Bangla-Arabic language has emerged. This is different from the Arabs' beautiful Spoken Arabic language. This course clarifies such mistakes and teaches speaking Arabic like normal Arabs.

Module 07: Vocabularies

Word wealth is the foundation of learning a language. Words that are commonly used in spoken language are taught. Most of them are not available in literary texts.

Module 08: Feminine-Masculine Difference

Every language has its own specific feminine-masculine difference. In Arabic, the manner of communication to men differs from that to women. Being a necessary part of speech this difference is taught.

Module 09: Months and Days

Days, weeks, and months are indispensable in everyday spoken language. Methods of using these in Arabic language are discussed. Also, a special study on the use of Arabic numerals is provided.

Module 10: Group Discussions

Spoken Arabic language can only be mastered by practice. Group discussions and personal evaluation enabling this shall be conducted.

Module 11: Course Overview

An Exam to ensure the quality of the courses offered by the Academy shall be conducted. Course Certificate endorsed by Arab Trainers are provided.
